

Rights Measure Will Be Taken Up Next Month

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Rules Committee formally agreed today to House consideration of a civil rights bill next month.

The committee action by a 7-4 vote broke a deadlock that had bottled up the controversial measure since it was approved last August by the House Judiciary Committee.

The rules group provided specifically that an administration-backed proposal for federal court appointment of referees may be considered as an amendment to the House bill.

Voting to permit consideration of the bill were Reps. Ray J. Madden (D-Ind.), James J. Delaney (D-N.Y.), Thomas P. O'Neill (D-Mass.), Leo E. Allen (R-Ill.), Clarence J. Brown (R-Ohio), B. Carroll Reece (R-Tenn.) and Hamer H. Budge (R-Idaho).

Against it were committee chairman, Howard W. Smith (D-Va.), and Reps. William M. Colmer (D-Miss.), James W. Trimble (D-Ark.) and Homer Thornberry (D-Tex.).

The twelfth member of the rules committee, Rep. Richard Bolling (D-Mo.), was absent.

The committee recommended that the House debate the bill 15 hours before considering amendments. This could mean weeks of debate.

Cherry Pie Contest

CHICAGO (AP) — Forty-eight girls and two boys showed their skill today in the National Cherry Pie Baking Contest.

Among the entrants, representing all states, was Arkansas' Debra McDaniel of Magnolia.

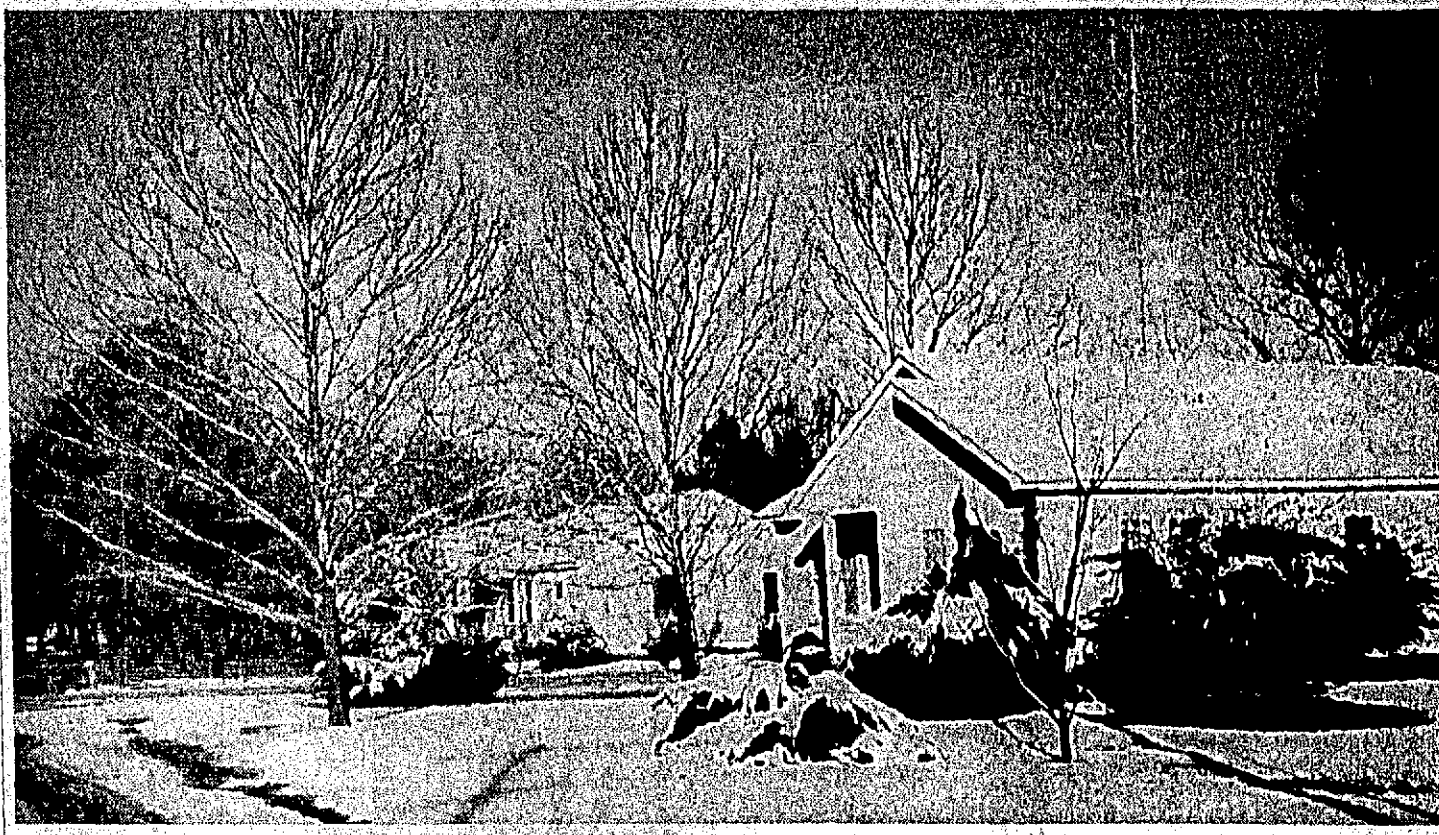

National and regional winners are to be decided this afternoon.

Miss McDaniel, 16, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cline McDaniel and is a junior in high school.

She won the Arkansas pie-making contest at Southern State College last June.

The National Red Cherry Institute sponsors the contest.

Congress to Probe Air Force Manual

WASHINGTON (AP) — One congressional inquiry was promised today in the preparation of an Air Force manual which says Communists have infiltrated the nation's churches.

The manual was withdrawn from circulation a week ago and was republished Wednesday by the Air Force.

Chairman Melvin Price (D-Ill.) of the House subcommittee on military manpower promised an immediate inquiry into the whole Air Force system of manual preparation.

Among other things, the manual says:

"Thirty of the 95 persons who prepared a revised standard version of the Bible under sponsorship of the National Council of Churches 'have been affiliated with pro-Communist fronts, projects and publications.'"

In discussing classified secret information, the manual said "it is foolish to remark often heard is that Americans have a right to know what's going on." It said that would be like a football team giving the other side its signals, making a loss almost certain.

The manual leaked into the headlines Wednesday when the National Council of Churches registered a protest with Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates Jr. The council is a representative body of Protestant and Orthodox churches in the United States.

The manual is the third Air Force manual to be leaked.

Civil Service Commissioner Questioned

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The Garland County Grand Jury questioned four members of the Hot Springs Civil Service Commission yesterday in an investigation of the city's police department.

Commission Chairman Johnnie Moore, Secretary Gerald Vander slice, Dr. Jett Scott and Mervyn Perry appeared before the jury. Also questioned was Mrs. Margaret Stitt, a stenographer who takes minutes of Civil Service Commission meetings.

Earlier yesterday, the Police Pension Board retired Police Chief John Erney. There was no indication that this action was linked to the jury probe.

The board said two doctors recommended the retirement because Erney suffers from hypertension and has a kidney ailment caused by a wound suffered in the line of duty.

Erney, a member of the force since 1947 and chief since 1952, declined comment. Erney also served in the Garland County sheriff's office for 10 years.

Mayor Dan Wolf said Asst. Chief Mildred Sanders would become acting chief until a successor to Erney could be named.

Trice Ellis, chairman of the grand jury's law enforcement committee, wrote Wolf last week instructing him to see that "the police department is operated in a manner prescribed by law."

Sun Beaming on Arkansas, Snow Melts

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The sun beamed on Arkansas today and a light coating of snow in most areas of the state melted rapidly.

All roads in the state were reported open. A number of schools took a holiday because of still hazardous conditions caused by snow and ice.

One fatality stemmed from the latest blast of wintry weather. A Negro basketball coach drowned when his automobile went out of control on ice-slick Highway 64 near Augusta and plunged into the Cache River last night.

The victim was Raymond Terry, who lived at Pine Bluff and coached at the Negro high school in Wynne. He was en route home after a basketball game at Wynne when the accident occurred.

The forecast called for continued cold weather. Highs today are expected to be in the 30s and tonight's lows are due to range from 20 to 30 degrees.

A warming trend is forecast for tomorrow.

A two-inch fall of snow covered portions of central and south Arkansas last night. Lesser amounts were reported in other sections.

State Police closed some highways in central Arkansas because of slippery conditions but traffic moved on them today.

School closings included those at Stamps, Waldo, Stephens and Willsboro. Telephone service between Magnolia and Stamps and Taylor and Waldo was interrupted temporarily by line breaks caused from a snowfall.

Minimum temperatures today ranged from 21 at Fayetteville to 29 at Texarkana, El Dorado and Pine Bluff.

All sections of the state except the areas of Fayetteville, Flippin and Mountain Home reported some precipitation in the 24-hour period which ended at 6 a.m. today.

Snow or flurries of snow were reported at Little Rock, Conway, Jonesboro, Fordyce, Sheridan, El Dorado, Pine Bluff, Batesville, Fordyce, Greenwood, Glendale, Gurdon, Texarkana, Clarksville, Hope, Warren, Magnolia and numerous other points.

Truman to Skip Symington Dinner

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman, who isn't endorsing anyone for the Democratic presidential nomination at this stage, won't attend a testimonial dinner Saturday for Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.). Truman had been billed as the principal speaker.

The $100-a-plate dinner had been watched for any sign that Truman might come out in favor of Symington, an unavowed candidate for the nomination and one-time secretary of the Air Force in Truman's cabinet.

James Meredith, general chairman of the Symington dinner, said the former president, vacationing in Florida with his wife, sent a telegram Wednesday stating: "I can't make it, much to my regret."

Asks Court to Reconsider Affidavit Law

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court has been asked to take a second look at the teacher affidavit law—Act 10 of 1958—which it upheld Feb. 8.

A petition for rehearing, filed yesterday, praised the high court's "admirable admonition" against misuse of the law.

Even so, said the petition, the fact remains that school authorities are not required to keep confidential information furnished them under Act 10.

Act 10 forbids employment of any public school teacher or college instructor who refuses to swear to names of organizations he has belonged to or contributed to for five years past.

The rehearing petition was filed by Edwin B. Dunaway of Little Rock, attorney for two teachers who unsuccessfully challenged the act.

In its opinion, the court said that Act 10 was valid on its face but warned that use of the law in a "discriminatory manner" could render it invalid.

The court said that affidavits required by the act need not be opened to public inspection.

The rehearing petition said the ruling was based on an "erroneous premise."

"The resultant interplay of governmental and private action, set in motion by Act 10, in successfully dissuading teachers from exercising their constitutional rights or making them targets of abuse if they do, through the publicity made possible by act, is ignored by the court," the petition said.

Rights Issue Bogs Down School Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Stella, Mo., school bill still is bogged down by the Senate civil rights controversy.

An unsuccessful attempt to expedite it was made Wednesday by Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.).

He sought to introduce a new bill which, like the one snagged in debate, would excuse the school district from paying the Army $6,200 rent for use of an idle building at Ft. Crowder, Mo., as a temporary school house.

Fulbright ran into opposition from Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Republican floor leader and a stiekier for senatorial protocol.

"My affection for this school district," Dirksen said, "is exceeded only by my affection for orderly procedure in the Senate." Fulbright's move, he added, took him completely by surprise and he would have to object to introduction of a new bill at this time.

The school bill has nothing to do with civil rights. But civil rights advocates, by tacking on their proposals as amendments, hope to get them through the Senate.

Fulbright said he didn't understand "why anyone could be so picky and wish to try and bring the last nickel out of this poor little school district down in the Ozarks."

Indonesia Gives Khrushchev a Big Welcome

By JOHN RODERICK

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Neutralist Indonesia today gave Nikita Khrushchev the most enthusiastic welcome of his current Asian tour, and he beamed with appreciation.

An estimated 200,000 Indonesians greeted Khrushchev in the airport area and 300,000 more lined the motorcade route into the city as the Soviet Premier began his 12-day visit looking brighter than at any time since he left Moscow.

Khrushchev, who got only lukewarm receptions from the public in New Delhi, Calcutta and Rangoon, was in high spirits.

He looked healthy and rested, in contrast to the tired, subdued appearance he exhibited during most of his stay in India and Burma.

Indonesia's powerful Communist party and the Communist-run trade union federation, SOBSI, joined the government in bringing out the crowd.

Khrushchev declared full support for the "independent and active" policy of this sprawling young island republic and said the Soviet Union and Indonesia jointly stand for peace, for elimination of colonialism and for "prohibition of the nuclear weapons menacing the life of humanity."

Indonesia's President Sukarno met Khrushchev as he alighted from the big turboprop plane which brought him from Burma. Khrushchev hinted in his arrival speech that he may offer the Indonesian government further economic aid during his visit.

He will find the Indonesians in a receptive mood for Soviet offers of aid but determined to cling to their neutralist policies in the international arena.

Sukarno is anxious to get Soviet credits in addition to the 118 million dollars which they already have extended.

Cites Danger of Control of Television

NEW YORK (AP) — Frank Stanton, president of the Columbia Broadcasting System, said today government control of television programming would endanger the freedom of newspapers and other media.

Stanton spoke at a luncheon at which he was awarded the annual Advertising Gold Medal of Printers' Ink, a weekly magazine of advertising and marketing.

He opposed any move that would permit the government to regulate program content.

"Once the government tells three television stations in a city what they must broadcast," Stanton said, "how long does anyone suppose it would be before the government tells the only newspaper in town what it must print?"

"Most metropolitan centers in the United States have more competing television stations than competing mass circulation daily papers."

"It would be as logical to seek constitutional reforms to impose government standards on newspapers, because their number is limited by economics, as to regulate programming on television stations because their number is limited by the spectrum."

To Tighten Loans on Life Insurance

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Insurance Commissioner, Harvey Combs plans to tighten regulations governing issuance of credit life insurance with loans.

Combs said he had called representatives of all 30 credit life companies to a meeting in his office next Wednesday.

"We plan to prohibit writing of credit life on any loan of less than 30 days," Combs said. "And we may make that 60 days just to be on the safe side."

Combs said the new policy was inspired by reports that some loan companies had charged borrowers up to $2.50 weekly for credit life premiums on a $10 loan.

Credit life is decreasing term insurance issued for the duration of a loan or mortgage. It insures payment of the debt in the event the debtor dies.

Herter Asserts Safe Disarms Plan Urgent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter said today the spreading production of nuclear weapons makes a safe-guard disarmament program urgent because soon almost any country in the world may get the power "to trigger off a nuclear war."

In a speech prepared for a National Press Club luncheon, Herter said "we are not so concerned with regard to the free nations which might be the next to produce nuclear weapons, but we are concerned lest the spread become wholly unmanageable."

He added: "The more nations that have the power to trigger off a nuclear war, the greater the chance that some nation might use this power in haste or blind folly."

It was Herter's first appearance before the press club since becoming secretary of state, and he made it an occasion for a major address in relation to the forthcoming new East-West disarmament talks.

Herter said the United States is approaching the talks in earnest hope of reaching some accord with the Soviet bloc which will begin to bring the dangers of nuclear war under control.

"We approach these new negotiations," he also said, "with some hope that the Soviet leaders may be coming to realize that the arms race offers unacceptable risks. This realization could induce them to attach a high priority to progress in arms control, as being in their own national interest."

Five Allied nations will meet with the Soviet Union and four Soviet bloc countries at Geneva March 15 to begin a new round of general disarmament negotiations, or some weeks Western negotiators have been meeting here to shape proposals for the conference.

Herter made no specific reference to the fact that less than a week ago France made its bid for membership in the great power nuclear monopoly by exploding a nuclear device. But this event has brought renewed worry over the world about the expanding possession of nuclear weapons.

Execution Stay Denied; Way Is Left Open

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — U.S. District Judge J. Smith Henley today refused to interfere further with the executions of four Negro murderers, two of them scheduled to die tomorrow.

But Henley left the way open for a quick appeal to a higher federal court.

W. Howard Flowers of Pine Bluff, attorney for the four men, could not be reached to say whether he would ask the 8th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis for a stay pending a review of Henley's order.

Apparently he would have to act today.

Willie Byrd, 22, and James Boyd, 20, two of the Negroes, are to be put to death in the state electric chair at Tucker Prison farm tomorrow.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The fate of two Negroes scheduled to die in the electric chair tomorrow rests on a decision in a case U.S. District Judge J. Smith Henley has under advisement.

Henley held a day-long hearing yesterday on petitions of writs of habeas corpus for four Negroes, all of whom were sentenced to die for the May, 1958 robbery slaying of M. R. Hamm, 76, near Texarkana.

However, Henley did not issue a stay of execution for Willie Byrd, 22, and James Boyd, 20, the two scheduled for execution tomorrow. This indicated he intends to rule before the execution hour.

Henley stayed the executions of James Moore, 22, and Rogers Boone, 26, only 14 hours before they were to die last Friday.

The four Negroes were brought manacled into federal court yesterday to listen to attorneys arguing their fate.

Their lawyer, Harold Flowers, a Pine Bluff Negro, contended in the petition for writs of habeas corpus that police used threats to obtain confessions from the men.

Boone, Byrd and Boyd testified Max Tackell, Texarkana police chief, threatened to turn them over to a mob unless they confessed. Moore was placed on the stand but he was dismissed after he was unable to give coherent answers to several questions by Flowers. Moore appeared extremely frightened.

The men were escorted from death row at Tucker Prison Farm by two penitentiary officials and a trustee. Handcuffs were removed while the men were in court.

Cuba Ratifies Sugar Deal With Russia

By ROBERT BERRILLEZ

HAVANA (AP) — The Cuban Cabinet today ratified the big sugar-heavy trade pact signed last Saturday by Prime Minister Fidel Castro and Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan.

The deal makes the Soviet Union Cuba's biggest customer next to the United States.

In the wake of the agreement, U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter announced in Washington that consideration is being given to cancellation of the system under which the United States pays premium prices for Cuban sugar.

There was no comment from the late night Cabinet meeting on Herter's remarks. But Castro is expected to blast the American secretary tonight when he makes another of his periodic television appearances.

Under the trade pact, the Soviet Union will buy five million tons of sugar at world-market prices over the next five years. It will pay 20 per cent of the cost in dollars, the rest in Soviet products.

Moscow also will bolster Cuba's shaky finances with a credit equivalent to 100 million dollars. It will be repaid over a 12-year period at 2 1/2 per cent interest.

Commerce Minister Raul Capet Bonilla says Cuba will repay the credit with its own products.

Soviet Super Salesman Wins Victory in Cuba

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

On Dec. 2, 1923, President James Monroe pronounced a doctrine which declared that the American continents no longer were to be considered subjects for colonization by European states and that any foreign interference in the American Hemisphere would be regarded by the U.S. as an unfriendly act.

The Monroe Doctrine was designed to protect the "peace and safety" of the United States, and the democratic governments of the fledgling states of South America.

President Monroe had no way of foreseeing the world of 1960 with the Soviet team of Khrushchev and Mikoyan in action and a Communist Russia piously portraying itself as the patron of underdeveloped states, some of them at the United States' doorstep.

Wins Moral Victory

Thus super-salesman Anastas Mikoyan won a moral and economic victory the full extent of which still must be measured in his deal to supply Cuba's Fidel Castro regime with a 100 million dollar credit and to buy 5 million tons of Cuban sugar over the next five years.

The United States cannot afford to let Cuba fall under Soviet domination, economic or otherwise. The question is how to prevent it.

The Cuba situation is but a dramatic manifestation of others which President Eisenhower will encounter in his south-of-the-border tour.

"The first will come in Brazil which also has been offered vast credits by the Soviet Union.

Expert Requests

While Eisenhower is not expected to conclude formal deals with any nation during his trip, it has been predicted that Brazil will place before him specific requests. These would include a 100 million dollar wheat loan, more loans for expansion of industry and an increase in Brazil's U.S. sugar quota.

Requests for U.S. aid in addition to the vast amounts already received will be made against the background that, if not from the U.S., they can be had from Russia.

These could be interpreted as a form of economic blackmail but they are the facts of life.

Jones Says Negro Vote Is 72,604

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Auditor Jimmie Jones today set the number of qualified Negro voters in Arkansas at 72,604 out of a total registration of 590,501.

He said the Negro total had increased 8,581 over 1957 when the controversy over integration first led to an overall compilation by race.

The figures Jones released are based on payment of poll taxes on voting in this year's elections—and he said part of his racial breakdown had to be estimated.

He said he made estimates in nine counties, either because race was not indicated on poll tax books or because he did not receive the books.

He said these counties were Independence, Logan, Poinsett, Pope, Randolph, Scott, Washington, White and Yell.

DOROTHY DIX

Her Children Can't Forget

Dear Dorothy Dix:

When the children were little, I tried to please my husband. Now I try to please the children. Sometimes they make remarks: how they were raised, how I treated them, what we had to eat. My husband worked hard but wouldn't allow me to spend a penny. He carried his money in his pocket. Fifty cents was all I ever got at one time. That was to order my two little boys a pair of pants. Yet they always show more love for their father than they did for me. After they were grown I began to show my love. I try to look nice and happy when they come around. I try to make up for the past. Should they always be reminding me? I believe there is a good spot in me somewhere or I wouldn't have been blessed with four such wonderful children. — Weirdest Mother

Dear Weirdest Mother: Your children should forget and forgive but — wounded hearts heal slowly. If you could bring yourself to talk to your children as you've written to me, it might help.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I go with a man 10 years my senior. We both go to a business school. He treats me wonderfully and does not ask favors of a certain kind. He says I am too good. He once stayed away from school and stopped calling me for over a week, hoping I'd stop caring. I refrained from calling him. Then he called and told me he couldn't stay away, but warned me that life with him would be bleak and unhappy. He divorced three years ago. His former wife was not true. He never wants to get "trapped" again. Yet in the next breath he tells me how we'll get married. I am very popular and have three dates with different men every weekend. He sees a couple of women, only for one thing. I am 20; he is 30. Help me! — Bothered

Dear Bothered: The man sounds shopworn. Make a date with him could be bleak.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I am 15 years old and go with a boy of 16. We have one complication — my girl friend flirts with my boy friend. He flirts right back. She is in his classes. At the basketball game I flirted with her steady and did she get mad! And did my boy friend blow his top at me! Have I a right to be jealous? If he likes her, why does he keep asking me for dates? Am I too young to go steady? — M

Dear M.: Your girl friend isn't acting like a friend, nor for that matter is your boy friend. Cut out seeing them for a while. This cooling off period will give you time to think clearly. Jealousy has made you vulnerable.

Send your problem to Dorothy Dix. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her in care of this newspaper.

Pleas for Support

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The General Council of the Evangelical and Reformed Church has called upon American Christians to pledge support to the Jewish communities of the world.

In a statement issued by the co-presidents of the United Church of Christ, the Rev. Dr. James E. Wagner of Philadelphia and the Rev. Dr. Fred Hoskins of New York, the council Tuesday assailed recent anti-Semitic incidents.

"We believe it is incumbent upon all men of good will to express their disapproval of this lawlessness and to call upon police agencies and the community at large to vigorously stamp it out," the statement said.

but entrances to the room were guarded. During the lunch break, the four ate sandwiches and drank pop in a cell in the U.S. Marshal's office. They were returned to Tucker last night.

Henley could order new trials for the men. Or, if he rejects the petitions, he could stay the executions pending an appeal to higher federal courts.

All four have been tried twice already. They were convicted together but the Arkansas Supreme Court reversed the verdict and ordered separate trials.

Moore and Boone were tried separately. Byrd and Boyd were tried together. All four were convicted again and the state Supreme Court affirmed the death sentences.

Flowers filed the federal court petition last Thursday after the state Supreme Court refused to stay the executions of Moore and Boone to permit further legal action in Miller Circuit Court.

The attorney didn't file petitions for Byrd and Boyd until after the hearing for Moore and Boone to consolidate the cases for the hearing.

Asks Surplus for Needy Districts

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Distribution of surplus state revenues among needy school districts has been suggested by Perry Rep. Paul Van Dalsen.

The proposition came up yesterday as the Arkansas Legislative Council's Education Committee was discussing financial problems on some districts.

The committee agreed that a state law limiting school district indebtedness to 15 per cent of total assessed valuation worked a hardship on districts with large government-owned areas which cannot be counted in the total.

Van Dalsen said needy districts would reap a double benefit if extra state money was provided because they could use it to obtain matching federal funds.

The committee assigned a subcommittee to discuss the problem with the state Board of Education.

The famed Atlantic City boardwalk is 60 feet wide and 5 1/2 miles long.

ney general representing the state urged Henley to reject the petitions.

WINDSOR, ONT. (AP)—Two patrolmen in suburban Sandwich last stopped a car carrying three teenagers because the youths looked suspicious.

They put one in their own patrol car, then returned to question the others.

The lone youth sped off in the patrol car, smashed into a parked vehicle and escaped on foot. While the two patrolmen were chasing their own car on foot the other two youths drove off.

Damage to the patrol car: $500.

West Virginia Upset, Thanks to Small Whiz

BY DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Although Jon Feldman's only 5-9, when it comes to whittling down a big basketball team he's just the fellow.

The little guy who plays backcourt in college basketball for George Washington University fired in 42 points, 12 in a blistering second half, for a 97-93 Southern Conference upset of staggering West Virginia Wednesday night.

The defeat cost the Mounties their fourth loss in 24 games and second Southern Conference setback in two weeks.

Now 9-2 to idle Virginia Tech's 10-1, West Virginia is in danger of losing its first Southern race in six years.

North Carolina and Wake Forest remained one-two in the Atlantic Coast Conference, St. Bonaventure ran its winning streak to 11 with a 72-70 thriller over ninth-ranked Villanova, and St. Joseph's (Pa.) Navy and DePaul improved their tournament credentials in other top games.

Doug Moe, reinstated to the eligible list at midweek, whipped in 23 points as North Carolina made its AC record 8-1 and its over-all mark 13-4 with a 66-62 victory over North Carolina State. Wake Forest clinched at least a second-place tie, rolling to an 11-2 ACC slate with a 106-66 rout of Virginia as sophomore Lennie Chappell had 41 points and grabbed 21 rebounds.

St. Joseph's (Pa.), probably in line for an NIT bid, routed DePaul 99-66 for a 15-5 record with Bobby McNeil scoring 33 points. La Salle, leading St. Joseph's for the Middle Atlantic Conference's NCAA berth, came a cropper, losing in an upset to cross-town rival Penn 66-62.

DePaul (13-4) handed NIT-bound Dayton its first home loss of the season, 79-66, with Howie Curio scoring 25 and at the same time fattened its prospects as an NCAA at-large team along with Navy, now 13-5 after whipping Georgetown (DC) 79-68. Army won its 14th in 21 tries, 59-45 over Lehigh.

Robertson Assured of Scoring Title

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson heads down the stretch of his last college basketball season virtually assured of his third straight national scoring title.

But the fabulous Big O may have to yield some of the national spotlight to a hot-shooting Auburn team.

With Robertson sailing along with a 36.6 average on 731 points in 20 games and a clear lead over St. Bonaventure's Tom Stith, Auburn is quietly moving into a position to become the first team in basketball history to lead the nation in both field goal and free-throw shooting.

Statistics from the NCAA Service Bureau in New York today show the Tigers have hit 419 of 814 field goal attempts for an unprecedented 515 percentage. At the free throw line, Auburn has nailed 338 out of 431 for 784 per cent.

St. Louis Pointer Is Still Favorite

GRAND JUNCTION, Tenn. (AP) — Stormy Tempest, a pointer owned by Dr. W. G. Arney of St. Louis, remained the gallery favorite in the National Bird Dog Championship today.

Tempest ran his 18-bevy hunt for the judges in his field trial "World Series" on opening day. He was strong, accurate, mannerly. Though not very flashy, his performance hasn't been topped yet.

Up for their crack at the title yesterday were Q's Delivery Doone, owned by Harold Crane, Washington; Gandarme, owned by Mrs. W. V. Garner, Amite, La.; Seairup, owned by Dr. George Oehler, Springfield, Ill.; and Space-master, owned by R. E. Daniel, Durham, N. C.

Of 35 dogs entered in the National all champions of lesser trials — 19 have yet to make their tough three-hour hunt over the tricky Ames Plantation course. Four show each day.

Hawks Could Clinch Tie Friday Night

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Friday night could bring the St. Louis Hawks' fourth straight National Basketball Assn. Western Division title now that they have clinched at least a tie.

All it takes is a victory by the Hawks over the Minneapolis Lakers or a Boston victory over second-place Detroit.

The Hawks clinched the tie Wednesday night with a 131-127 victory over the Lakers in the first game of a doubleheader in Philadelphia. Will Chamberlain scored 33 points in leading the Philadelphia Warriors to a 123-118 nightcap win over Syracuse, keeping alive the Warriors' faint hopes to overtake Boston for the Eastern title. Boston has a 7 1/2-game edge with 13 to play. The Warriors have 12 games remaining.

Rookie Boob Ferry broke the last of three ties in the final five minutes for the Hawks' victory, making two foul shots with a minute and 43 seconds to play.

Another Team Eliminated in SWC Title Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Another team faded virtually from contention in the Southwest Conference basketball race last night as Baylor took a 65-61 drubbing from already-eliminated Texas as Christian. It left four teams — half the field — in the running with Texas, Texas A&M and Southern Methodist tied for the lead.

Baylor's record is 4-5 in conference play and the Bears are three games out of first place with five to go.

Arkansas, in fourth place, has a 5-4 record and still is in the race, if remotely. The Razorbacks are two games away from the three leaders.

Texas Christian was winning its second conference victory of the season and had to shoot at a 57.7 per cent pace in the last half to come from behind for the triumph.

The Frogs snapped a five-game losing streak. Jerry Cobb and Tommy Meacham led the Frogs to their victory. Cobb scored 21 points and grabbed 19 rebounds. Meacham flipped in 19 points and took 12 off the boards.

There'll be no more action until Saturday night when all the teams play conference games. Texas A&M hosts Arkansas, Rice plays Baylor at Waco, Texas Christian invades Dallas to clash with Southern Methodist and Texas goes to Lubbock to engage Texas Tech.

Tax Return Jails Rev. Martin King

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., frequent storm center in Negro attempts to knock down Southern racial barriers, has been arrested on an Alabama charge of lying about his state income tax returns.

He characterized the Montgomery County perjury indictment as part of a pattern "to misrepresent and seek to frustrate the move of persons working to achieve the ideal of freedom and brotherhood." The Negro minister denied the charge as he posted $2,000 bond Wednesday.

"I have always made the most painstaking effort to give an honest and accurate return of my income," said King, who moved here recently from Montgomery to intensify his passive resistance movement against segregation.

Circuit Solicitor (prosecutor) William Theford said in Montgomery that King was charged with lying about failure to report $31,000 in personal income during 1956 and 1958.

King's salary as pastor of the Dexter Avenue Baptist Church in the Alabama city was $5,000 a year.

Foreign tourists visiting Japan in 1959 spent a total of 76 million dollars.

Bid Rejected for Mammelle Works

WASHINGTON (AP) — The General Services Administration has notified Rep. Dale Alford (D-Ark) that it has rejected the latest bid for the Mammelle Ordnance Works, near Little Rock, Ark.

As a result, GSA told Alford, it has signed a contract with a Little Rock Realty firm (Block Realty Co.), under which the concern will, for six months, seek to sell the World War II facility for $2,105,600—which GSA set as the fair market price.

After the plant was declared surplus, GSA sought bids on it. But because the highest bid submitted was only $1,001,011, Alford and other Arkansans protested the price was too low. GSA, after examining the matter, agreed and sought to negotiate a higher offer from the high bidder, Perry Equipment Co., of Philadelphia.

Perry agreed to increase the bid by about 11 per cent but GSA rejected the proposal and yesterday announced the new selling effort.

Reporters Ask Why a Man Ended His Life

Editors' Note: On Feb. 6, William Rodriguez, one of Chicago's thousands of Puerto Rican residents, died of a heart attack. His death was reported in a few paragraphs. To determine why a man with a good job, a family and a jovial disposition did this, the Chicago bureau of the Associated Press assigned two veteran reporters, Earl Aykroid and William Conway, to investigate. They spent days interviewing the family, neighbors, friends, police, his employer and the people who extended him credit.

By EARL AYKROID and WILLIAM CONWAY

CHICAGO (AP) — William Rodriguez trudged home through rain and snow and wet-hour darkness. He was only 23, in good health and known as a happy-go-lucky fellow.

ment building at 801 S. Springfield Ave. on Chicago's West Side. He had worked for Sears Roebuck & Co. for 16 months. He filled mail orders. He made $66 a week, gross.

Mr. Rodriguez left his job the first four days of this month. He had a physical examination Friday, Feb. 5. He was found fit and directed to return to work Monday.

Friends say he spent the rest of that day and evening at movies. Detective George Cohen says William bought rat poison at a drug store and, as he walked toward home, ate it.

He reached his apartment at 2 a.m. and told his wife what he had done. Police took him to a hospital. He was given fluids and his stomach was pumped. A neighbor drove him home—the family lacked cab fare—but sharp pains developed and police brought him back to the hospital.

Detective Cohen told a coroner's jury that William, just before he died, explained "he was in debt up to his neck and couldn't go on any further."

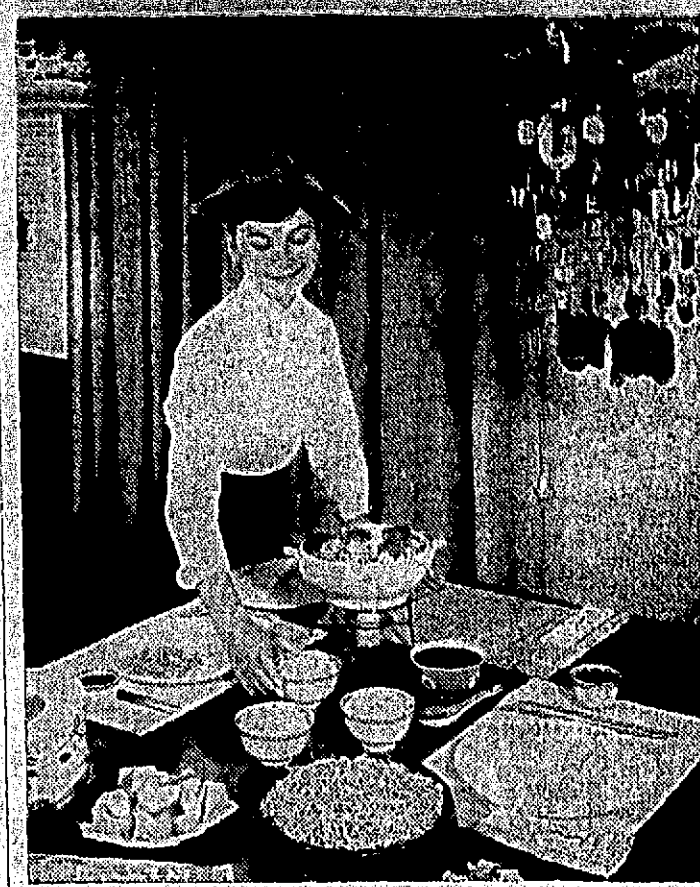

In a pocket, Cohen testified at an inquest, Feb. 11, was a bill with an added warning that, if he didn't pay, his employer would be notified.

Luis Acevedo, a neighbor, said William feared he might lose his job if his wages were garnished again.

Wilfredo Velez, a case worker for the Knights of St. John, a Roman Catholic organization that helps Puerto Ricans, reported that William owed about $700 in all.

Tempers Flare in N. Carolina Race Trouble

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP) — A eruption of tempers and fists Tuesday turned a sit-down demonstration by Negro students at a segregated lunch counter into a short but bloody brawl.

One white youth was temporarily hospitalized with a slashed face—probably done with a razor, police said. Three Negro students were arrested. All were charged with disorderly conduct. One also was charged with assaulting an officer and carrying a concealed weapon.

The violent outburst was concentrated in the parking lot of a suburban shopping center. But it had its inception in the attempt of some 50-60 Negroes—mostly high school students—to obtain service at the "white only" lunch counter of Rose's Department Store.

As the white and Negro youths battled here, the Rev. Martin Luther King told a Negro rally in Durham, N.C. that his race must be willing "to fill up the jails of the South" if it takes that to break down racial barriers.

The Atlanta Negro leader spoke to about 100 students from Negro colleges in the Carolinas and Virginia who have been staging the variety store lunch counter sit-downs.

At High Point, N.C. police broke up a rock, bottle and brick-throwing scrap between a group of Negro and white youths.

One youth who said he was a bystander was hit in the mouth by a missile. The fight occurred near a Negro residential area after police had separated the two groups earlier downtown where Negroes had been picketing variety stores.

THE LADY AND THE GIANT

By Clarence Budington Kelland

By Clarence Budington Kelland CHAPTER XXXIV

I was standing six feet to the left of Lottie, and near me was a solid wooden antique chair. In the instant of his shock I snatched it up and, leaping between him and Lottie, I presented it as a shield. Oscar hurled another knife, but it buried its point in the thick bottom of the chair. I rushed upon him.

A heavy chair with a broad bottom is not only a defensive, but an offensive weapon. At close quarters it is frustrating to an antagonist—especially an antagonist with knives to throw. My unexpected rush threw Oscar back and pinned him against the wall.

The four legs of the chair hampered and imprisoned him; the clumsy weapon could not be fended and skill was helpless against it. Suddenly I drew it back and jabbed with it.

Oscar grunted with pain as a leg punched him in the stomach, while another made contact with his shoulder.

Over my shoulder I called to Lottie. "Get out of here! Get out!" But I could not see if she obeyed.

Oscar's arm must have been momentarily benumbed, for his remaining knife dropped to the carpet. But his recovery was quick, and his big hands clutched the chair and tried to wrestle it away from me.

He braced his back against the wall and, shifting his hold to two of the chair legs, twisted until the sturdy wood cracked and splintered and I found myself with only part of the seat and back—no longer an effective weapon.

I thanked heaven for my friendship with the canawalers, whose delight it was to wrestle on the sward along the canal of evenings. They had taught me the tricks of catch-as-catch-can, and the dainties (twistings and gougings and knifings intended to maim or even kill, an adversary in serious and bloody battle).

Once, as we whirled and sidestepped, I caught a glimpse of Lottie crouched against the wall, and of Madam, her fists pressed against her lips.

"I told you to get out!" I shouted.

"And let her stab you in the back!" Lottie cried.

I lunged toward Oscar clumsily, pretended to trip and dropped to my knees. The maneuver required split-second precision. By Oscar's reaction to my trick, I knew he was not familiar with it, for he gained a kick at my face—and that was what I wanted. I struck upward with all my strength. My hand hit his forehead on his groin. Madam or Lottie Banker Watts and as he doubled in agony, I surged up beneath him and lifted him from the floor. With every ounce of my remaining strength I shook him above my head, and Don't Drew! I wired him! This is then, as I had been taught, I spun his reply: "The woman Janeway is upon my heels, once around, twice an impostor. I never heard of her around, three times, and hurled I will sue for slander any man who Oscar heading against the brick charges the contrary." Watts was a sound which I hope never to hear again—the cracking of a human skull. Oscar kicked once and lay still.

Lottie ran toward me, gripped my elbows and looked up into my face.

"You're the dandiest fighter alive!" she said. "Why don't you kiss me, you great out?"

I never had kissed her. It never had occurred to me to do so; and the present moment seemed no time for it.

"Go along with you," I said. "I've no time for your monkey-shines now."

Madam Janeway had dropped her hands from her face and was staring across the room at Oscar.

"Is he dead?" she whispered.

"I hope so," said I, and was not surprised at my harshness.

"Oh, I hope so too, I hope so," Madam said wretchedly. "I shall be free from him."

Madam was a shifty, clever woman. Even in this tragic moment she might be preparing the way for her defense.

"He was your man," I said accusingly.

"He was my husband." There was hysteria in her voice. It was not a cultured voice now, but something common "the shame of it!" she cried. "Chained to a thief and a murderer."

It was artificial, it was acting, but even though I recognized it for what it was, it affected me. I looked at Lottie and saw that she was crying.

"Little Lottie," madam said, "I loved you."

"But," I said harshly, "You would have stood by and let Oscar murder her. You lured her here to torture her and make me tell where the money was hidden."

"But," Madam said softly, "it broke my heart."

There was a clamor at the door, and it burst open and half a dozen men entered. In the lead was Banker Watts, whom I had seen last in a swoon on his office floor, there was our chief of police and men in uniform. They stopped suddenly in the archway at the sight of Oscar and the pool of blood in which he lay.

"What's this? What's going on here?" our police chief demanded. And then Madam showed herself as she truly was.

"That man," she said, "murdered my husband for the money. They plotted together to rob the banks. That man killed my husband so he could keep it all."

"That," said Lottie sturdily, "is a wicked lie."

Apparently none of them heeded Madam or Lottie Banker Watts as she truly was. He waved a yellowed telegraph blank and shouted "What have you to say to this, you sharper, you thief?" From his mouth above my head, and Don't Drew! I wired him! This is then, as I had been taught, I spun his reply: "The woman Janeway is upon my heels, once around, twice an impostor. I never heard of her around, three times, and hurled I will sue for slander any man who Oscar heading against the brick charges the contrary." Watts was a sound which I hope never

Super Radar to Spot Red Missiles

WASHINGTON (AP)—A super-power radar station able to spot Soviet missiles thousands of miles away will be set up in England for U.S.-British defense, the State Department announced today.

The huge metal screen—bigger than a football field set on its side—is to be built at a 120-million-dollar cost at Fylingdales Moor, Yorkshire. This is midway up the east coast of Britain, between London and Edinburgh.

Defense experts said this giant installation, plus two others now under construction in North America, will be able to provide speedy detection over a large area of the northern hemisphere of any missile headed that way.

The reported range of the high-power radar is about 3,600 miles. The electric eye can thus peer across the arctic to spot missiles launched from Russia.

The two other stations in the chain are now being built at Thule, Greenland, and Clear Alaska, for completion expected late this year or in 1961. No estimate was given for the construction time of the station in Britain. The U.S.-British agreement to build it was only reached last Monday.

U.S. officials figure the construction cost at 98 million dollars for the United States and 22 million dollars for Britain. The British will command and operate the station.

HOW THEY BROIL STEAK IN ALBERTA

The people in Canada's Province of Alberta, noted for its fine ranches, petroleum discoveries, wheat and home of the Continent's largest national park, Jasper, in the heart of the Canadian Rockies, are partial to outdoor living with attendant barbecues.

Fred Van Dyke, Manager of Jasper Park Lodge, celebrated mountain resort in Jasper Park which is larger in area than the State of Connecticut, has come up with an Alberta specialty which does honor to a province where beef and steak dishes are a specialty.

Here's Van Dyke's recipe for Alberta style charcoal broiled steak:

2 sirloin strip steaks

1 tablespoon dry mustard

1 tablespoon butter

2 drops Tabasco sauce

1/2 teaspoon garlic salt

1 tablespoon vinegar

1 small bay leaf, crushed

very fine

Place steaks on an outdoor grill four inches above white hot briquettes. For rare steaks, broil six to ten minutes on each side.

Spread mustard sauce over steaks

while last side is broiling.

To make mustard sauce, combine mustard, Tabasco sauce, garlic salt, vinegar and bay leaf. Mix

to a smooth paste. FMS

Spa Police Chief Is Retired

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Police Chief John Erney was retired by the trustees of the Police Pension Board today.

A recommendation for Erney's retirement because of physical disabilities had been made to the board.

Erney will draw a pension of $221 per month. This represents half of his $402 monthly salary, plus a $5 premium for each year of service as a law enforcement officer in excess of 20 years.

He was a Garland County deputy sheriff from 1936 to 1947 when he joined the Hot Springs Police Department and has been chief of police since February, 1952.

Erney declined comment when asked if the retirement had anything to do with a current investigation being conducted by the Garland County Grand Jury.

He said in a statement about his retirement that he had been fair and honest to citizens of Hot Springs and Garland County.

The retirement was recommended by Dr. D. B. Souh, a member of the pension board, and Dr. Jett Scott, a member of the Civil Service Commission. They said Erney has a kidney ailment resulting from a bullet wound in line of duty several years ago and also suffers from hypertension.

Mayor Dan Wolf said Asst. Police Chief Mildred Sanders will assume the duties of acting chief.

Earlier, the grand jury's law enforcement committee instructed Wolf to "take steps to see that the police department is operated in the manner prescribed by law."

Big Firms Claim Policy Is Ethical

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two of the five big makers of heavy electrical products indicted for allegedly fixing prices claim their policy is to conduct business on ethical standards beyond challenge by the government.

Both the Westinghouse Electric Corp. and General Electric Co. issued statements Tuesday shortly after a federal grand jury returned the indictments.

GE, Westinghouse, Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co., I-T-E Circuit Breaker Co. and Federal Pacific Co. were charged with fixing prices and rigging bids in a more than 200-million-dollar annual business. Eighteen individuals also were indicted.

Westinghouse called the indictments "a shock." A spokesman added that "it is the policy of Westinghouse to conduct its business on ethical standards that are beyond challenge by the government, customers, competitors and the public."

In New York Ralph J. Cordner, board chairman of GE, said that since 1946 the firm has had a written policy regarding compliance with antitrust laws and it "goes further than the antitrust laws require."

Harold S. Silver, general counsel of Allis-Chalmers, said "We have not yet seen the indictment and therefore cannot appraise the basis for it." He said his firm gave full cooperation in the investigation.

A spokesman for I-T-E said the firm would have no comment until officials have had an opportunity to examine the papers.

The indictments involved production of power switchgear assemblies, oil and air circuit breakers and low voltage power circuit breakers. All are used in the gen-

Reception to Introduce Her Fiance

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — As evidence of how the world has become smaller, consider the wedding today of Miss Anne Baxter of Hollywood to Mr. Randolph Galt of Honolulu and Sydney.

The marriage takes place at St. Andrew's Episcopal church in Honolulu. Before leaving for Hawaii, the actress held a reception in her home to introduce her fiance.

"He is what the French call 'le vrai,' meaning he is the true article," Anne said admiringly of her husband to be, a handsome soft-spoken six-footer. She told of their trans Pacific romance which may have clocked more air miles than any other in history.

"It began over a year ago, when Anne was in Australia to film 'The Summer of the 17th Doll.' After finishing the picture, she visited some friends, the Petor Balliuss, at their station in the country. They had wanted to introduce her to another Australian settler, Rand Galt, but he was in the Philippines.

Anne returned to the United States. After the death last spring of her grandfather, Frank Lloyd Wright, Anne was reminiscing about him on an educational radio station in San Francisco. Galt was in town, heard about her appearance and phoned her.

She remembered his name and agreed to a dinner date. They had several more dates before he returned to Australia.

They met again last autumn in Honolulu, where his parents, the socially prominent Carter Galt, live. The pair returned to San Francisco and were engaged in October. She somehow managed to keep it a secret until last week.

In November, she went to visit Galt's 37,000-acre cattle ranch 180 miles from Sydney. After leaving the Air Force, he had sought a place to raise cattle, couldn't find enough cheap land in America. His uncle, oilman Sam Mosher, recommended Australia, where he had an orchid farm. Galt now has 2,700 Herefords on his station.

Steel Orders Down

NEW YORK (AP)—Steel orders are now running about 10 per cent below a month ago. Iron Age magazine said today.

The national metalworking weekly explained that "a small flurry of deferments, cancellations and a general attitude of hesitation contribute to the drop in orders."

eration, conversion, transmission and distribution of electric energy.

The government charged the alleged conspirators eliminated price competition and forced federal, state and local governments to pay high, artificially-fixed prices without benefit of competitive sealed bids.

Delicious Sunshine Salad

Appetizing and colorful, this sunny new salad creation will surely spark lagging appetites with its appealing flavor and shimmering beauty. Prepared with fruit-flavored gelatin—lemon and lime—and a medley of walnuts, pineapple and other good things, it's the salad with the "mostest". Brighten family and company meals all winter with this sunshine salad.

- Waikiki Salad
- 1 package (3 ounces) lemon-flavored gelatin
 - 1 package (3 ounces) lime-flavored gelatin
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 2 cups hot water
 - 1 cup pineapple juice
 - 6-8 walnut halves
 - 1 1/2 cups drained crushed pineapple (one 1-lb. 4 1/2 ounce can)
 - 1 cup mayonnaise
 - 1 cup cottage cheese
 - 1/2 cup chopped walnuts
 - 3 tablespoons prepared horseradish
 - 2 tbsp. chopped pimiento

Dissolve gelatin and salt in hot water. Add pineapple juice. Pour into a 2-quart mold to a depth of 1/4 inch. Chill until almost firm. Chill remaining gelatin mixture until slightly thickened. Place walnut halves on top of 1/4-inch layer and anchor with a few spoons of slightly thickened gelatin. Chill. Fold in remaining ingredients and pour into mold. Chill until firm. Unmold. Garnish with mayonnaise and watercress, if desired. Makes 12 servings.

Note: For a more unusual design, line mold with pimiento strips, cucumber slices, and stuffed green olive slices, before slightly thickened gelatin mixture is being poured into mold.

Turkey, Ham Supposed to Be Good Buys

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Turkey and ham both are likely candidates for your dinner Sunday, judging by specials at many supermarkets and neighborhood groceries.

Higher prices around the end of the year influenced turkey growers to produce more birds this year than they had planned earlier. The Agriculture Department looks for a 6 per cent higher crop overall, with an increase of 12 per cent for heavy breeds but a decrease of 18 per cent in light breeds.

Bargains in hams stem from continued heavy marketings of last spring's record pig crop. Sharply higher frozen stocks are expected to lessen the usual seasonal swings in pork prices during the late spring and summer. Pork chops are up sharply over a wide area this week, while fair-sized increases also are shown for beef rib roast in a smaller area. Butter and eggs are slightly higher in a few scattered sections.

Cabbage, carrots and lettuce are included on this week's list of outstanding buys. Other best buys include Florida celery, mushrooms, small to medium yellow onions, green peas, potatoes, es-chale, endive and sweet potatoes. Early western asparagus is quite expensive, while those who like corn, Chinese cabbage, cucumbers, eggplant, green onions and tomatoes will have to pay a bit more than usual.

Outstanding bargains among fruits include eastern apples (although many are reaching a ripe condition and you'll have to shop carefully), grapefruit, oranges, pineapples, bananas and honeydew melons from Chile.

MacArthur Improving

NEW YORK (AP)—Lenox Hill Hospital says Gen. Douglas MacArthur, 80, is still showing moderate improvement. MacArthur entered the hospital Jan. 20 with a prostate gland disorder.

It Really Was a Bombshell to the Teller

NEW YORK (AP)—Father Breslau says no one was more surprised than she was to find that the withdrawal slip she presented a bank teller Tuesday said, "Give me all the money. I have a bomb."

She said she had picked up some withdrawal slips from the savings bank in Brooklyn Monday and took them home to her husband. He filled out one of the slips to withdraw $50 from his account.

slip to a teller, Elsie Her-making, who noticed the note on the back of the slip and quietly set off an alarm.

Mrs. Breslau wondered why so many policemen were entering the bank. Then she found out.

Police and the FBI questioned her 8 1/2 hours and found, first, that she had no bomb; second, that she insisted she only wanted $50. Her husband had sent her to get, and third, that she apparently had not noticed the note and had no idea how it got there.

When her husband, Martin, got home from work as a garment cutter, he was as surprised as Mrs. Breslau.

The Breslaus got their $50 and went home.

Costello Stripped of Citizenship

NEW YORK (AP)—A District Court order stripping underworld kingpin Frank Costello of his U.S. citizenship was unanimously upheld today by the U. S. Court of Appeals.

The 69-year-old Costello, target of numerous federal drives against criminal elements, is serving a five-year sentence for evading $28,000 in federal income taxes.

The government has claimed he obtained U.S. citizenship 20 years ago through fraud, in wrongfully giving his occupation as real estate instead of bootlegging. Costello was born in Sicily.

Government Hating Farmer Giving Away Estate Simply to Cause Tax Confusion

GALLATIN, Mo. (AP)—"I've hated the government ever since I was old enough to know anything," says farmer John William Knight.

That's why Knight, a 90-year-old bachelor, is giving his estate to 12 nieces and nephews, four churches and the Salvation Army. So far he says he has passed out $15,000. He still has $45,000 to go.

Knight, who lives on a 160-acre farm near this northwest Missouri town, got the money from the sale of 300 acres of farmland.

"So I know I had this big lump of money," he explained. "I knew I wasn't going to need it except, some to live on and I didn't want to die and leave it in one piece and have taxes get most of it. I never held with lawyers and wills. Decided I'd make sure it goes where I want."

Knight traces his antipathy for tax collectors to his young manhood.

"I was raised in a log house on a ridge about three miles west of here. First farm I bought was the old Blake place. Drove $200 worth of cattle and hogs up there to make the first payment.

"Right off they wanted $45 taxes on the place, and it still mortgaged. It don't hardly seem right a man has to pay taxes on a farm he don't even own. So I've hated the government ever since I was old enough to know anything."

Knight said he expects to give away the remainder of his estate next year—"if I live to get the chance."

"All I want left when I die is a clean heart and clear head."

Burglary at Crossett

WEST CROSSETT, Ark. (AP)—A safe containing about $2,000 in cash and checks was stolen from the Western Auto Associate store last night or early this morning.

Also missing are two shotguns. The theft was reported by a passing motorist this morning who noticed the store's door open.

Sheriff B. A. Courson said his department has no leads.

Corporations Show Profits Increase

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Three out of four of the nation's corporations are reporting increased profits even while the stock market falters. And cash dividends continue to rise.

Many of the companies are reporting record net income after taxes for 1959. Many others are showing marked increases over 1958.

The first 669 nonfinancial corporations to publish 1959 operations show the average gain over 1958 is 19.3 per cent. Only in 1955 did profits take a bigger jump during the 50s. In that year they soared 32 per cent over 1954.

By contrast, 1958 earnings fell 14.3 per cent behind 1957. Most banks and other financial institutions also have reported increased earnings in 1959, with many records set.

Only two major nonfinancial divisions show declines from 1958. The aircraft industry and its suppliers dropped by 50.5 per cent, reflecting the vagaries of defense cutbacks and order-switching and the costs of retooling from prop to jets for commercial aircraft.

The railroads show a decline of 4.8 per cent. Most of the drop was among lines serving steel communities and plants with steel shortages during the 116-day strike.

For the 669 corporations combined, the total net profit was $12,062,511,000, against $10,106,417,000 for the same companies in 1958. Only 148 show declines this time. But of the 669 there were 32 operating at losses in 1958, compared with 27 in 1958.

Despite the stock market gloom the prospects for most of the corporations are bright for the current quarter, and many expect gains during the entire first half of 1960.

Federal figures show industrial output rising to a record high in January. Only in recent days have there been scattered reports of faltering.

Corporate directors continue generous in passing along the increased profits to shareholders. They passed out about a billion dollars in cash dividends in January, 10 per cent more than the previous year.

The spectacular gainers in 1959 profits over the previous year were the machinery and machine tool makers, with an advance as a group of 93.7 per cent, and automakers and their suppliers, with a group advance of 92.1 per cent.

Rhode Island's largest single industry is manufacture of textiles. The state also pioneered in the manufacture of jewelry and silverware.

Kennedy Is Working in Wisconsin

By HARVEY BREUSCHER

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), his hopes buoyed by an enthusiastic rally set out today on the second leg of a three-day Wisconsin tour predicting victory in Wisconsin's Democratic presidential primary.

"This campaign can be won," he told a crowd of more than 1,000 supporters in Kenosha's American Legion Hall Tuesday night.

"And this primary may very well determine not only the nominee of the Democratic party but the next president of the United States."

The prediction climaxed a 17-hour day of campaigning begun in Madison with a pre-dawn hand-shaking stint at an industrial plant gate. Four cities in the Republican stronghold country of southern Wisconsin were visited before the Kennedy motorcade wound up in Kenosha.

In Fort Atkinson, Elkhorn, Lake Geneva and Kenosha, the stops included main street tours by the Massachusetts senator and his attractive wife.

The two stepped into business offices, dime stores, lunch rooms and banks, shaking hands. At Whitewater, Kennedy told a student audience packing the Wisconsin State College auditorium that the Democratic system "is going through its most difficult period."

It must look to the "great professions" of politics, the church and teaching, he said, for the leaders that will keep it alive.

Try Broiled Grapefruit Soon

Broiled Florida grapefruit halves play an important role in smart hostesses' brunches and family breakfasts during the cold weather months. Besides being attractive and tasty, the grapefruit provides the vitamin C needed every day. Sunday's no exception! Served with sausage, toast, eggs, milk and coffee, the result is a nutritious and hearty meal.

Broiled Grapefruit

Cut fruit in half; remove core if desired. Cut around each section, loosening fruit from membrane. Do not cut around entire outer edge of fruit. Sprinkle each half with 1 tablespoon sugar and a dash of cinnamon, mace or nutmeg. If desired, dot each half with 1 teaspoon butter. Place grapefruit on broiler rack 3 inches from heat. Broil slowly 15 to 20 minutes, or until grapefruit is slightly brown and heated through. Grapefruit may be also baked in a moderately hot oven, (400°F.) 15 to 20 minutes. Serve hot with link sausage.

NOTE: If grapefruit is baked, sausages may be baked at the same time. Place links on rack in shallow pan; place on top shelf of oven 15-20 minutes.

Haiti Is the Caribbean's Oldest Dictatorship and Is Fighting for Its Survival

Editor's note: Morris W. Rosenberg of the AP's foreign staff has just visited the Dominican Republic, where Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo is fighting for survival after 30 years of iron-fisted rule.

By MORRIS W. ROSENBERG

PORT-AU-PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo is trying to stem the rising tide of discontent before it engulfs the Caribbean's oldest dictatorship.

Other home front troubles beset Trujillo in this 30th year of his dictatorship. Businessmen complain that economic conditions are the worst in the Caribbean. A drought last year which reduced the sugar and coffee crops was coupled with lower world prices. Government income lawyers, doctors and other professionals to assassinate him Jan. 21 at the opening of a cattle show. He retaliated with a wave of arrests.

But his action in jailing 1,500 to 2,000 persons drew fire from the Catholic Church. In a strongly worded pastoral letter, the church protested there was a lack of human rights in the country and deplored the suffering of the families of those jailed.

Trujillo crushed a nationwide plot by a middle-class group of lawyers, doctors and other professionals to assassinate him Jan. 21 at the opening of a cattle show. He retaliated with a wave of arrests.

Paar Failed to Find That Better Way

By FRED DANZIG
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—"There must be a better way to make a living than this," said Jack Paar as he quit his TV show last Thursday.

I suppose Paar looked around and couldn't really find his "better way." So, here we are, back where we started. On Monday March 7, Paar will be doing business at the same old tabletop again. That return date — first Monday of the month — happens to be a happy accident because that's when key ratings are taken. And if the network and Paar are at all interested in such things as ratings, well... but that's another story.

Since Paar groused about the rugged pressures he had to work under, it is encouraging to learn that's going back to the same old grind, for it indicated he's growing up. In the cold, bleak light of dawn, he has come to understand there is no such thing as starring on a network TV show that's pressure-free.

Where does Paar go from here? In the past, as in this episode front-page attention has always soothed Paar's ruffled temperament. But, as Hugh Downs put it the other night: "What does he do for an encore." The question, uttered in jest, has deeper significance in Paar's case. After things simmer down, Paar may get that neglected feeling again. And what happens then will be interesting to see. I kid you not.

The part that Joan Fontaine played in Tuesday night's Star, time Special called for her to horsewhip a critic who panned her act.

I got the message. I just want to say she was great. But seriously, folks — as they say on TV — Gavin Lambert's teleplay "The Closed Set," emerged on NBC-TV as a worthy sort of production because it avoided about as many clichés as it bumped into. There was no happy ending in this slice-of-life-in-Hollywood study of a lonely, vindictive, shallow, selfish Movie land queen. Truth did not emerge triumphant. Cynicism prevailed. Idealism was stomped upon.

But it was all done in gentle, understandable style, without tantrums and with a regard for certain realities.

The Channel Swim: Tony Randall has signed to star in a proposed weekly TV western series being produced by CBS. "Drumbeaters" will be a comedy approach to a press agent's career in frontier towns. Among the crew putting the series together are Doc Simon, Billy Friedberg and Ed Montagne, formerly with the Phil "Sgt. Bilko" Silvers series.

Rod Sterling's teleplay about the Warsaw Ghetto, "In The Presence of Mine Enemies," is set for a Playhouse 90 special on CBS-TV in May. Plans by producers of the highly-acclaimed "Play of the Week" drama series to tape several shows in Hollywood, with film stars in leading roles, have been cancelled.

With the dropping of the Charles Weaver Show, ABC-TV expands its "Music For A Spring Night" to a full-hour starting Wednesday, March 30. Eleanor Steber, Leonard Warren and Richard Tucker will appear on the March 30 show. Boris Karloff has agreed to serve as host of ABC-TV's new hour-long mystery series called, "thriller," being produced by Hubbell Robinson for fall viewing.

Knows the Value of Good Spelling

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A North Braddock woman now knows the value of good spelling.

Josephine Plock, 30, appeared in court Tuesday on a charge of malicious mischief. She was accused of smearing paint on the walls and floors of her home before she moved out.

One sign, according to testimony, said, "Landlady doesn't do anything for you." Asked in court how she spells doesn't, Mrs. Plock replied: "D-O-S-E-N-T." Judge Thomas Marshall handed down his verdict—guilty. She was reprimanded and ordered to pay court costs.

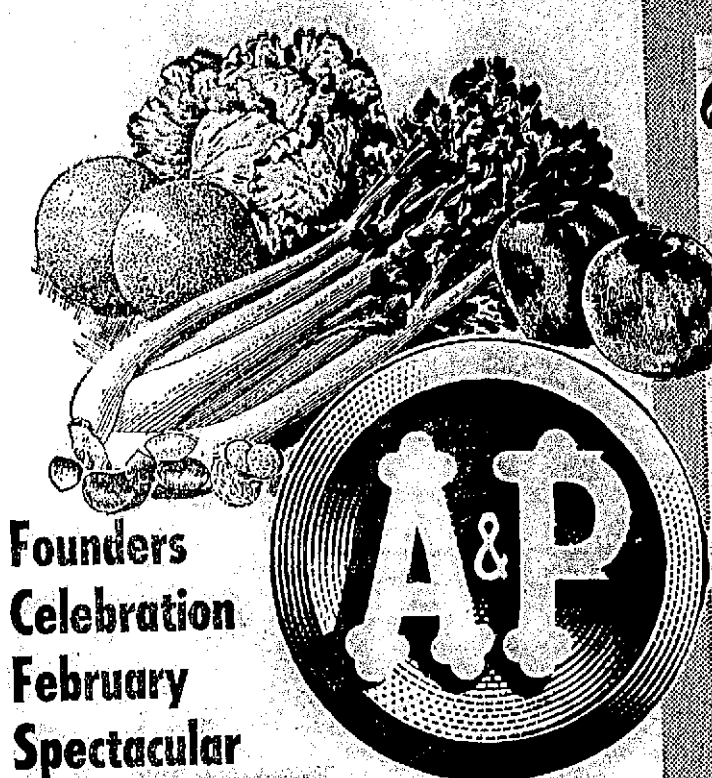

time the regime was forced into extra military expenditures by the threat that exiled opponents of Trujillo would invade from Cuba.

This caused a cutback in other government spending, particularly for public works.

Abroad, Venezuela is applying pressure against Trujillo's regime in the Organization of American States demanding investigation of an alleged violation of human rights.

Trujillo still controls the key element in the situation — the military. He is trying to remove the effect of the pastoral letter abroad by indicating it came because the church resented the government's refusal to curb activities of Protestant missionaries.

Government sources say that to ease tension Trujillo may soon grant amnesty to many of those convicted in the Jan. 21 plot.

Give Vegetables Pep

New ideas for dinner vegetables give your menus the 1960 look. Canned corn, sweetpotatoes and onions are all dressed up and very special in flavor.

Olive Corn Scallops

2 cans (1 lb. each) cream style corn
1 can (8 1/2 oz.) French fried onions
1/2 cup sliced ripe olives
2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
1/2 teaspoon chili powder

Combine all ingredients in a shallow casserole; mix well. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) about 30 minutes. Six to eight servings.

Frosted Sweetpotatoes

1 can (1 lb. 2 oz.) vacuum pack sweetpotatoes
2 tablespoons butter
1/2 teaspoon lemon juice
1/2 cup sifted confectioners sugar

Brown sweetpotatoes in butter. Mix lemon juice and sugar until smooth. Put sweetpotatoes in serving dish and pour frosting over them. Five to six servings.

Pimiento Creamed Onions

1 can (1 lb.) onions
1/2 cup condensed cream of celery soup
1/4 cup chopped pimiento

Add drained onions and pimiento to soup; heat. Four servings.

Courageous, Lets Everyone Know He Is

By PHYLLIS BATTLE

NEW YORK — Otto Preminger is famous as a man of courage. There are two reasons for this. First, he is courageous, and second, he lets people know it.

Take this example. He is seated bald and balding, at an enormous desk and he says he is about to leave for Israel and Cyprus where he will direct and produce a film of the best-selling "Exodus."

Someone observes that there may be a little shooting in the Middle East, and asks if that would change his location plans.

Preminger snaps amiably, "Certainly not. If there is a war where we are, we will just have to adjust ourselves to it."

The great Hollywood revolution, which he denies being a rebel, has long been fighting the also-does fighting against movie censorship, and his films ("The Man With the Golden Arm," "The Moon Is Blue," "Anatomy of a Murder") are distinguished not only for excellence but for breaking many of the old taboos (he denies breaking taboos) of the motion picture production code.

This is what he has to say when he is credited with being a high-principled fighter against movie censorship:

"Ridiculous. I don't look for fights. I love peace. The only thing I like to fight for is peace. But I do movies the way I see them, and then I am forced to defend them against the censors."

"I have certain convictions. I am a mild enough man, but as a citizen of the United States, I have, I believe, the rights to free expression on the screen. You have freedom of the press. Don't you? Why can't I have freedom of the screen? The Supreme Court has ruled that films have the same constitutional rights to free speech as the press, but the movie industry has always been fearful of pressure groups."

"I think the minute you submit to any pressure, from any group, small or large, right or left, you are helping to pave the way to destruction of human rights."

The phone rings, and Preminger picks it up. The conversation is lengthy. When it's over, he clanks the receiver back and returns to the topic as if there had been no interruption.

"Is anybody really afraid our free Democratic government will collapse because people talk in a courtroom scene on the screen exactly as they would talk in a courtroom scene in life?" He demanded. "Now I don't want to seem pretentious — but it's just as important to have freedom of expression in a silly little movie comedy as it is in a big city paper."

Preminger paused. "And I am right. Obviously. Because in each case where a movie of mine interfered with the prohibitions of the code, I went right ahead and made the movie. If I was wrong, they'd have made me change the movie. Instead, they changed the code."

Besides being famous for courage, the Austrian-born director is lately noted for buying great books before they are published. Besides "Anatomy of a Murder" and "Exodus," which he read in galley form, he snapped up the rights to "Advise and Consent" before others had seen it. Is it luck or instinct?

"I buy stories because I love them," he says, "and that's all there is to it. But," and he grins, "I am always gratified when the public agrees with me and makes it a best-seller."

Argentina Still Hunts for Sub

PUERTO MADRYN, Argentina (AP) — Ships and planes continued to hunt today for what the navy says is an unidentified submarine in Golfo Nuevo.

The ships and an unstated number of planes are participating in the search. Navy sources were reported convinced that a submarine—which many Argentines suspect was never there in the first place—remains in the gulf. But they say no sonar contact has been made for two days.

Officials indicated Tuesday they believed a submarine once was in the gulf but had escaped through its 10-mile-wide opening to the Atlantic. Nevertheless, the search planes and ships continued their activity.

Separated Siamese Twin Doing Fine

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Jeanett Stubblefield leaves the hospital for home today five months after being separated from her Siamese twin.

Jeanett and Denett were born last June joined extensively at the abdomen. They were parted in a long, delicate operation at the University of Oregon Medical School Hospital last October.

Denett went home Dec. 18 with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Stubblefield, of Parma, Idaho.

Salesman Comes to the Rescue

SAN LEANDRO, Calif. (AP) — A baby crawling on the floor of his parents' car—as they prepared to untuck their boat trailer on a launching ramp—released the hand brake.

Clinton Norman, 23, and his wife of nearby Castro Valley, were uncoupling the rig when the car began rolling backwards into the water. The trailer knocked Norman down.

Michael McColes, 32, a salesman, leaped from his parked car and plunged into the water. He pulled the baby through the window as the car and trailer sank.

Nobody was hurt, but the dripping salesman said, "I'm surprised myself. I didn't think I had it in me."

Truman Sees Victory

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman, always a vigorous Democratic campaigner, sees a party victory in 1960 if the Republicans nominate Richard M. Nixon.

"Anyone we nominate can beat the hell out of him," Truman cheerily told newsmen.

Truman met reporters when he arrived in Miami Tuesday to see a play starring his daughter, Margaret, and relax in Miami and Key West.

Asked whom he'd prefer as Democratic nominee, Truman said "I have no preference at this time and I will support the nominee."

PSC Dismisses Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Public Service Commission refused to act yesterday in a territorial dispute between private and public power companies at Forrest City.

The Woodruff Electric Cooperative Corp. of Augusta and Forrest City had filed a protest, stating that Arkansas Power & Light Co. took over some of its territory.

The territory in question was being served by Woodruff when it was annexed to Forrest City. After the annexation, AP&L, which serves Forrest City under a lease arrangement, began service.

The PSC held that Woodruff should have filed a complaint against Forrest City instead of against AP&L.

A Business Office at Quitting Time

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Have you ever looked around a business office at quitting time?

The white-collar characters in the office zoo start acting the moment they step into the place in the morning. And they are still acting at the end of the day, after eight long, hard hours of shuffling papers from one pile to another.

Here are a dozen types you probably will find in your own office:

1. The philosopher—at 5:31 (he always gives the company one extra minute of work a day) he rises from his desk and makes the same remark he has made every weekday evening for 34 years: "Well, another day, another dollar."

2. First-out-of-the-door-Freda—This beat-the-clock stenographer starts getting ready to leave at 4:30. She is in the washroom from 5:00 to 5:28. At 5:27 she sprints for the elevator, and any one standing in her path is in for a broken leg.

3. The nocturnal snooter—He hangs around after all others have left so he can read any mail they leave on their desks. He even checks the wastebaskets if the janitor doesn't beat him to them.

4. The pack rat—His last act of the day is to stuff his pocket with home-items he figures his kids can use in school—pencil erasers, library paste, memo pads, carbon paper. If you searched his house, you'd find more office supplies than the firm has in its warehouse.

5. The company humorist—As he steps into the crowded elevator he says loudly: "I suppose you all have been wondering why I called you together for this conference. Everybody laughed when he first made this wisecrack in 1942, and he can't understand why it still isn't funny in 1960."

6. The homing pigeon—Twice before quitting time he phones his wife in the suburbs, and he phones her again in the station just before leaping aboard his train.

What does he have to tell her? Nothing, just that he's coming home.

Furnished Everything

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A young postal clerk took his girl friend to a funeral wreath. Then he shot her twice in the head and killed himself Tuesday.

Nathaniel Wyatt died after firing a bullet into his temple. Sandra Booth Wilson, 21, was reported in critical condition.

Priscilla Jefferson, an aunt of Mrs. Wilson told police the young Negro couple broke up a few days ago.

Win Over Elements

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Mrs. Allen C. Kline of nearby Carlton and her new 8-year-old son are doing fine in City Hospital today—winners over the elements. Mrs. Kline began her trip to the hospital Tuesday because of deep snow in a lane leading from her home where she was placed on a home-made sled drawn by a tractor. Her father-in-law, James Kline, met her at the highway and took her to the car. While he stopped for gasoline, Mrs. Kline gave birth in the back seat.

Official Takes Oath

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP) — Field Marshal Mohammed Ayub Khan, military ruler of Pakistan for the past 18 months, was sworn in today as the country's first elected president. It was the first major ceremony held in Rawalpindi since Ayub Khan shifted the capital here from Karachi.
